We may also have a legal obligation to use your data, for example when we suspect fraud.

4 Who has access to your data?

We only pass on your data to other parties if this is really necessary for our services. This concerns these parties: payment partners and IT service providers. In suspicious situations, we are required to share customer data with government agencies.

We never sell your data to third parties.

5 Where is your data stored?

We store your data in a secure Cloud environment. We always apply strict security measures. Your data is always stored within the European Union.

6 How long do we keep your data?

We do not store and use your data longer than necessary. Then we delete all the data we have from you.

How does that work in practice?

We adhere to certain periods, after which we delete your data. Here they are:

- We delete inactive customer accounts after 7 years.
- From the tax authorities we have to keep our administration with your invoice and paymentdata for 7 years.

7 What are your rights?

Of course, you remain in charge of your data. Do you want to have access to your personal data and receive a copy? Or do you want to change or delete your data? No problem. You can report this to us by e-mail or telephone. This information can be found below.
